

Certified Clinical Trauma Professional Level II (CCTP-II): Complex Trauma Certification Standards
Application Standards for Practicing Professionals in Australia and New Zealand

1.0 Statement of Purpose of Certified Clinical Trauma Professional Level II Certification

This Certification is intended for the professional who has an existing knowledge about trauma and an overview of trauma treatment modalities (CCTP for example or evidence of equivalency). The Level II Certification builds from that foundation and adds skills and tools designed to promote trauma healing. Training that underpins the Certification is reflective not only of the challenges of treating “fragmented”, dissociative, individuals but also of the unique factors that negatively influence the clinician’s therapeutic approach such as:

- Internal conflicts that patients can’t straightforwardly express in therapy;
- Lack of control over certain behaviors; and,
- The clinician’s confusion (often) with clients who may present in therapy as “not the same person” moment to moment, day to day.

Training should include the therapeutic complexities that show up with clients who have experienced repeated relational violations, such as difficulty with trust, boundary violations and early attachment related issues.
