1.2 By applying for certification, the applicant agrees to adhere to Evergreen Certifications' Professional Code of Ethics, available at www.evergreencertifications.com/codeofethics

2.0 Educational Standards

2.1 The candidate must meet the following education criteria (total minimum of 12 clock hours of continuing education):

- Types of grief and their implications for treatment/interventions with children and adolescents
- Intake assessment of grieving children and adolescents, including assessment for depression, suicide, and co-occurring disorders
- Differentiate between normal, complicated, prolonged, and traumatic grief in children
- Common grief and loss reactions in each stage of childhood development
- Interventions and strategies for grief therapy or counseling based on child's developmental level
- Death vs. non-death losses, including divorce
- The process of mourning for children and adolescents
- Working through loss of a parent or sibling
- Cognitive components of understanding grief in childhood
- The importance of using concrete terms in grief work with children
- The concept of magical thinking in childhood grief

- The role of attachment and continuing bonds in childhood bereavement
- Working through regret, forgiveness, and reconciliation with children and adolescents
- Considerations for impact of loss on the family system
- Factors influencing the grief process, including multicultural and spirituality considerations, nature and type of loss, and support system
- Boundaries of professional competence and ethical considerations for working with minors and families

2.2 Suitable education sources are approved continuing education as documented by certificates of completion from the accredited training organization.

Evergreen Certifications will accept courses that have been completed within 3 years of initial application for certification.

3.0 Certification Application Process

1. Submit the following documents:
 - a. A copy of the candidate's professional license
 - b. Copies of completion of training as outline in the Educational Standards
2. Payment of certification application fee

Evergreen Certifications will certify applicants who meet the above requirements.

Please note: Certification does not imply endorsement of clinical competency. As a licensed professional, you are responsible for reviewing the scope of practice, including activities that are defined in law as beyond the boundaries of practice in accordance with and in compliance with your profession's standards.

4.0 Renewal of Certification

To maintain certification, a renewal is required. The steps to apply for a 1-year renewal are as follows:

1. Submit, via email, a copy of your professional licensure as well as a completion certificate for six (6) clock hours of continuing education on any of the following topics to info@evergreencertifications.com
 - a. Grief and loss in children and adolescents
 - b. Depression in children and adolescents
 - c. Suicide, suicide loss, suicidality, or self-harm in children and adolescents
2. Payment of renewal application fee

You can also apply for renewal for 2 or 3 years. Follow the process above, submitting twelve (12) CE hours of training for a 2-year renewal, and eighteen (18) CE hours of training for a 3-year renewal.

Renewal training hours need to have been taken in the time since you were certified or last renewed. Renewals are calculated from the date that your certification was issued.

If you allow your certification to lapse for more than 3 years, you are no longer eligible to renew your certification and instead can reapply for certification.
